Grandma

Grandma loved her family. Whenever they came over to her house, she made them good food. She was always doing nice things for her grandchildren. Grandma was a blessing to everyone.

Jesus brought the blessing of Abraham to you. Blessings are good things from God. Because of Jesus, God will bless you like He did Abraham.

Every Perfect Gift

(Sung to the tune of "Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star")

Every perfect gift of love,
Comes from Daddy God above.

Every perfect gift of love,
Comes from Daddy God above.

What Are Blessings?

Can you tell me . . . what are blessings? Pause briefly.
Blessings are all the good things from God.

Can you tell me . . . who blessed Abraham? Pause briefly.
God blessed Abraham.

Can you tell me . . . who blessed you? Pause briefly. God blessed you.

Instructions for Gift to Bless Others

Materials Per Child:

- one "Label" (see Preparation section)
- one small paper cup
- very small candies or flowers
- one plastic spoon
- one bowl to hold candy for every four children

Preparation:

Before class, make a "Label" for each child. Copy the page titled "Pattern for Labels" onto colored paper. Cut out "Labels." Tape one "Label" onto a cup for each child. Bring all materials to class.

What to Do:

During class, put candies or flowers into bowls. Have children sit near one of the bowls of candy or flowers. Give each child a cup. Have them fill the cup with candies or flowers using a plastic spoon. Write their name on the "Label." Tell them to give their gift to someone they love as a blessing.
