Kyle's Mommy

Kyle was three years old. One night, Kyle's mommy was in the kitchen washing dishes. She had already tucked Kyle into bed. Then she remembered something. During the day, she had promised to make Kyle some cookies.

Kyle's mommy was very tired, but she said, "I promised Kyle I would make him cookies tonight. I want Kyle to know that I always keep my promise. This will help Kyle understand that God always keeps His promise." So, even though she was very tired, Mommy went and got Kyle out of bed and made him cookies.

God always keeps His promises. God has promises in the Bible for you. He is ready to make His promises happen in your life.

Visit From Abraham

Preparation:

Bring to class a colorful towel, a cloth strip long enough to tie around your head, a baby doll and a baby blanket. First, place the towel over your head. Next, tie the cloth strip around the towel as a headband. Wrap the baby doll in the blanket and hold it.

What to Tell Them:

I am going to pretend to be Abraham. Can you pretend with me? Speak the following with an elderly man's voice.

Hello, boys and girls. My name is Abraham. My wife, Sarah, just had a baby boy. His name is Isaac. God promised us that he would be born, even though Sarah and I are very old. God can do anything He promises! God has promises in the Bible for you. He is ready to make His promises happen in your life. Just believe Him.

Baby Isaac came, just as God promised
