Jesus came to save me

Sharon

One night, Sharon asked Jesus to come into her heart. She believed that Jesus was the Son of God, and that He died and rose again. She knew that Jesus would save her, when she asked Him to come into her heart.

The next morning she could hardly wait to tell her friends that Jesus had saved her.

Jesus wants you to ask Him into your heart. He will save you, too.

Jesus wants you to ask Him into your heart

Visit From Jimmy

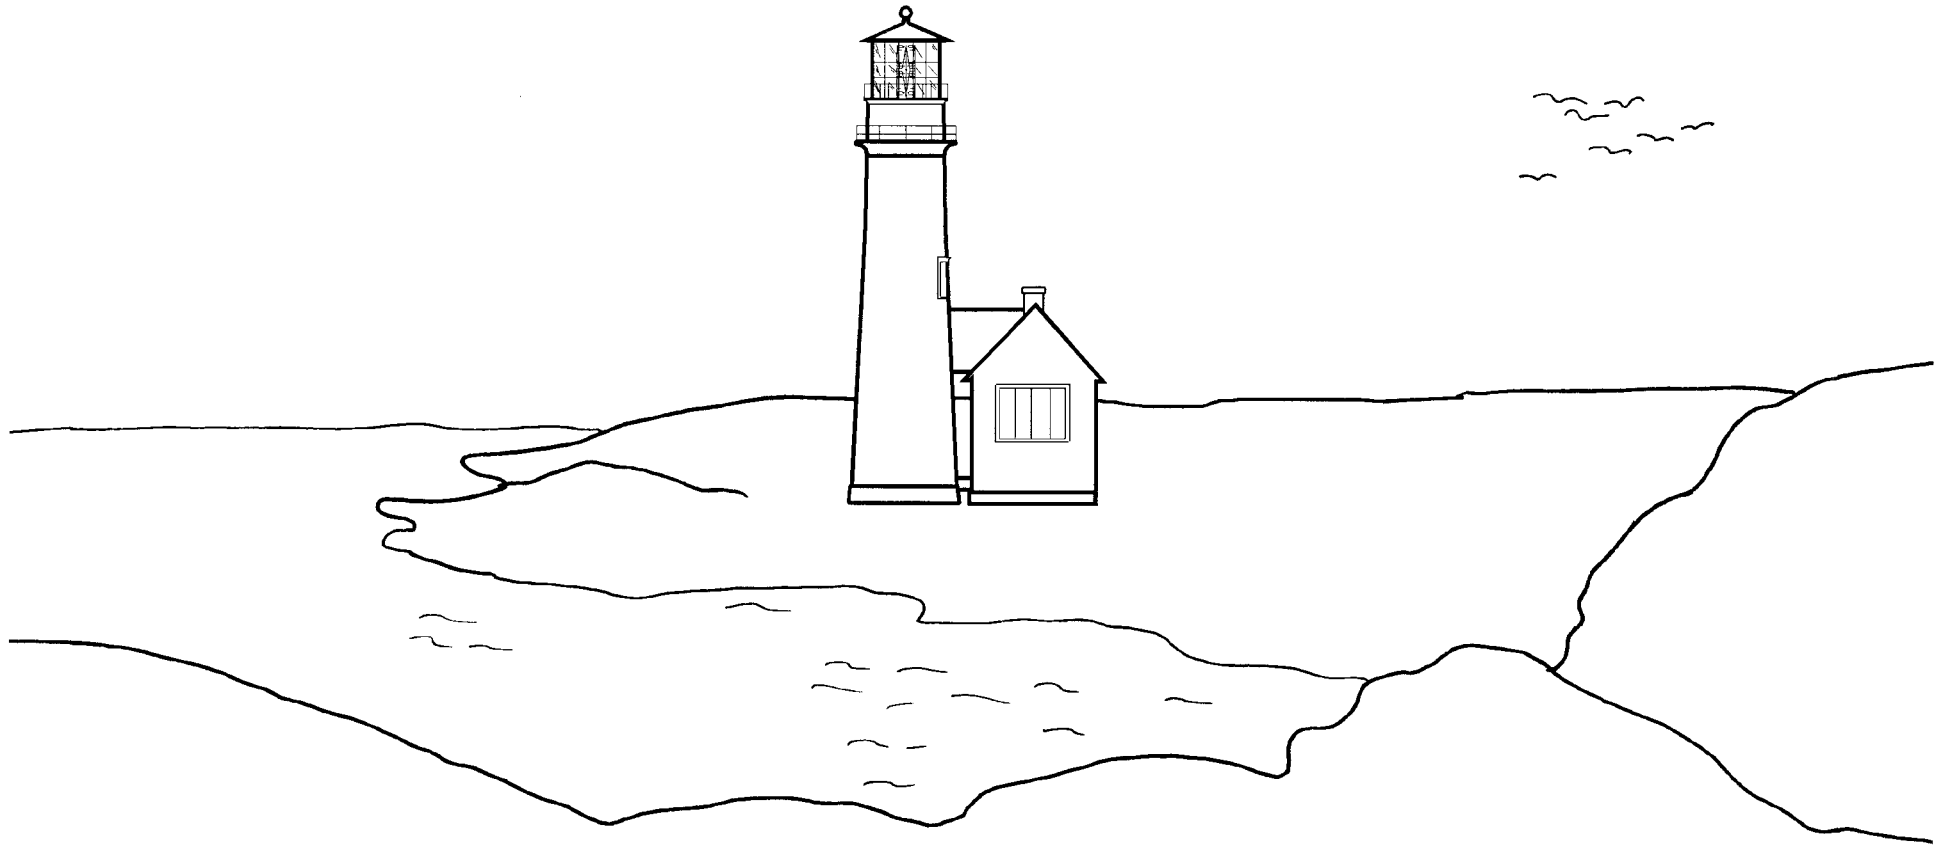

Preparation:

Bring to class a baseball hat. Put the hat on.

What to Tell Them:

I am going to pretend to be a little boy named Jimmy. Can you pretend with me? Speak the following with a little boy's voice.

Last week, I asked Jesus, "Please come into my heart." I told God that I knew Jesus was His Son and that Jesus died and rose again for me. Jesus wants you to ask Him into your heart, too. He will save you, just like He saved me.

...Believe on the Lord Jesus
Christ, and you will be saved...
Acts 16:31 NKJV

Jesus My Savior

From heaven above,
Jesus came in love,
To be my Savior,
Forever and ever.

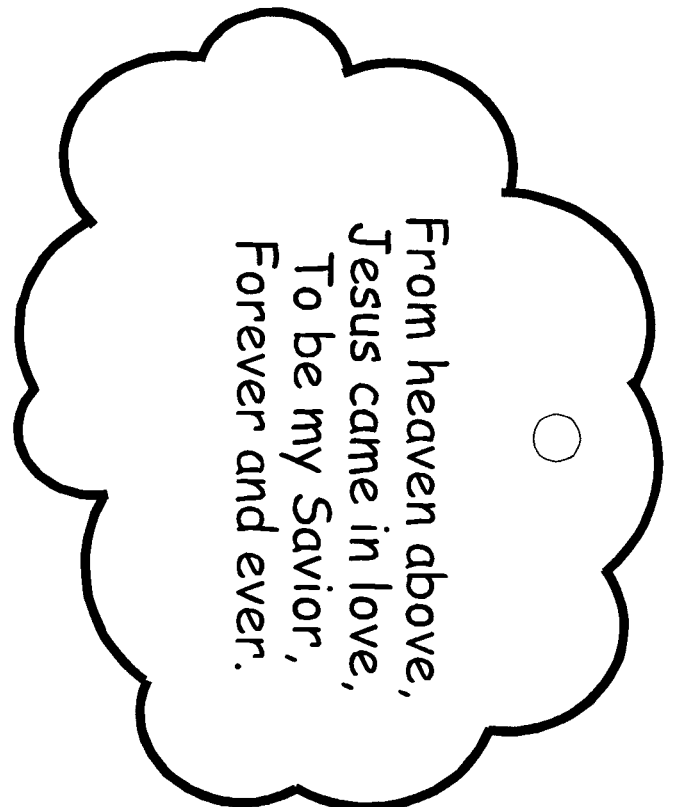

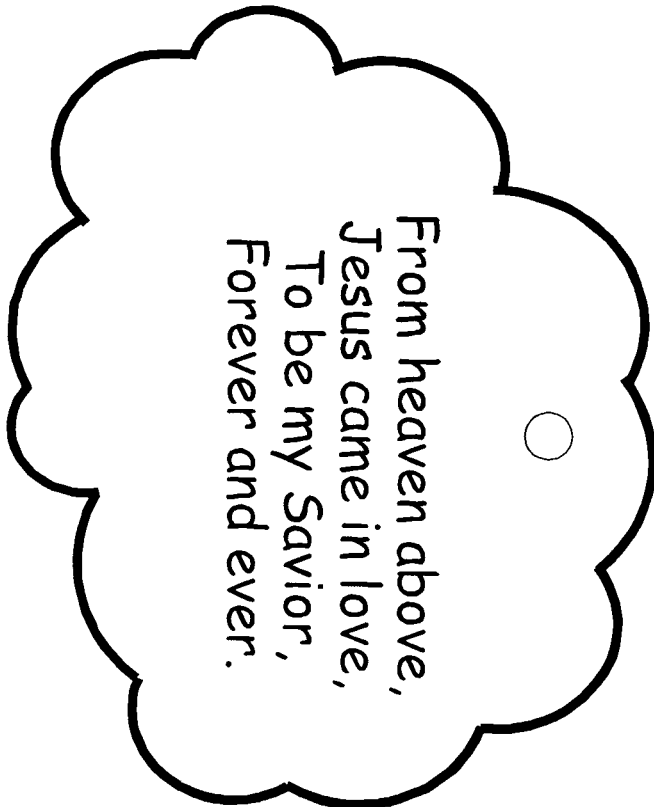

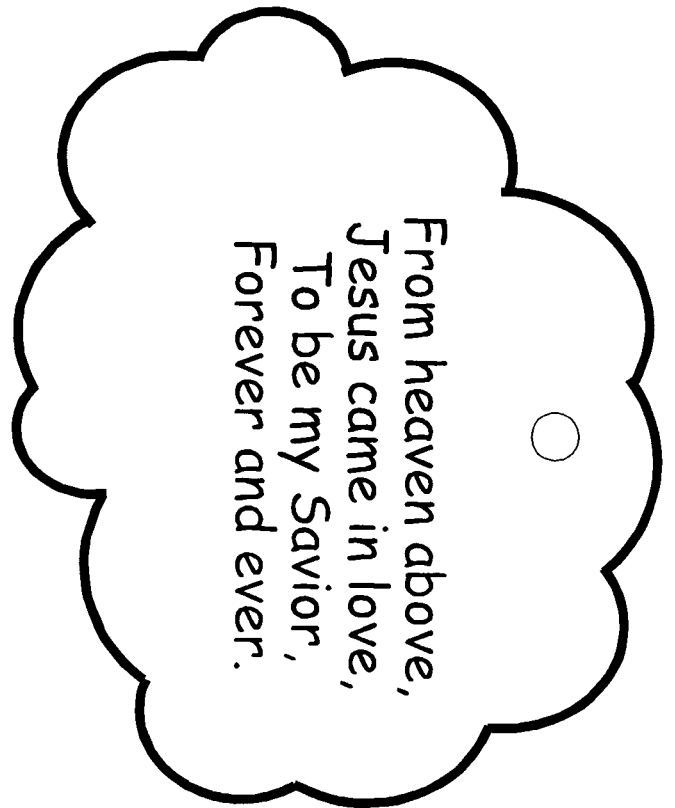

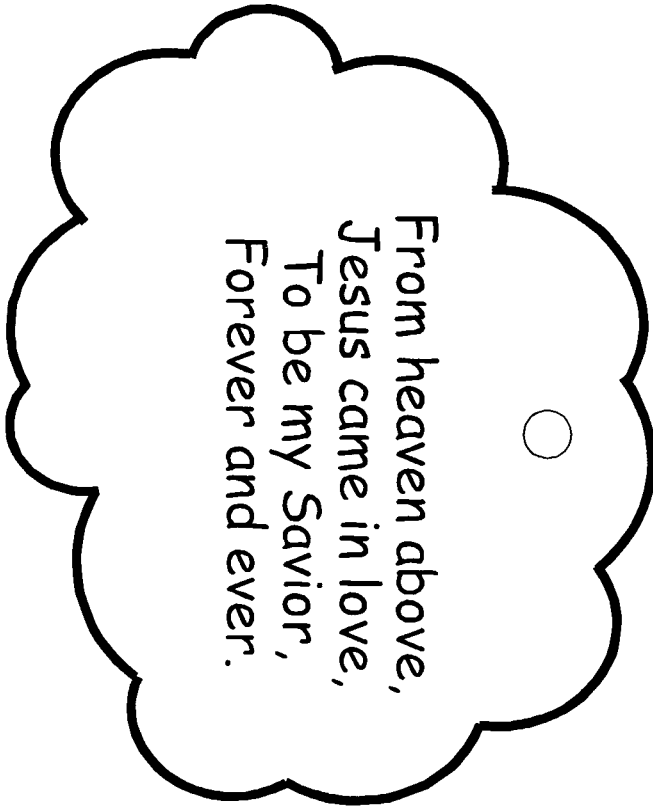

Point toward heaven.

Hug yourself.

Point toward's self.

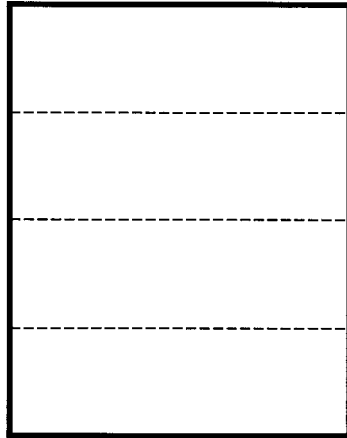

Arms out open wide.

Copy this page with "Clouds" onto colored paper. Cut out "Clouds." Punch hole at small circle. Thread piece of ribbon through hole. Have children string paper beads on ribbon. Tie ends to make bracelets. Make paper beads per the page titled "Instructions for Paper Beads."

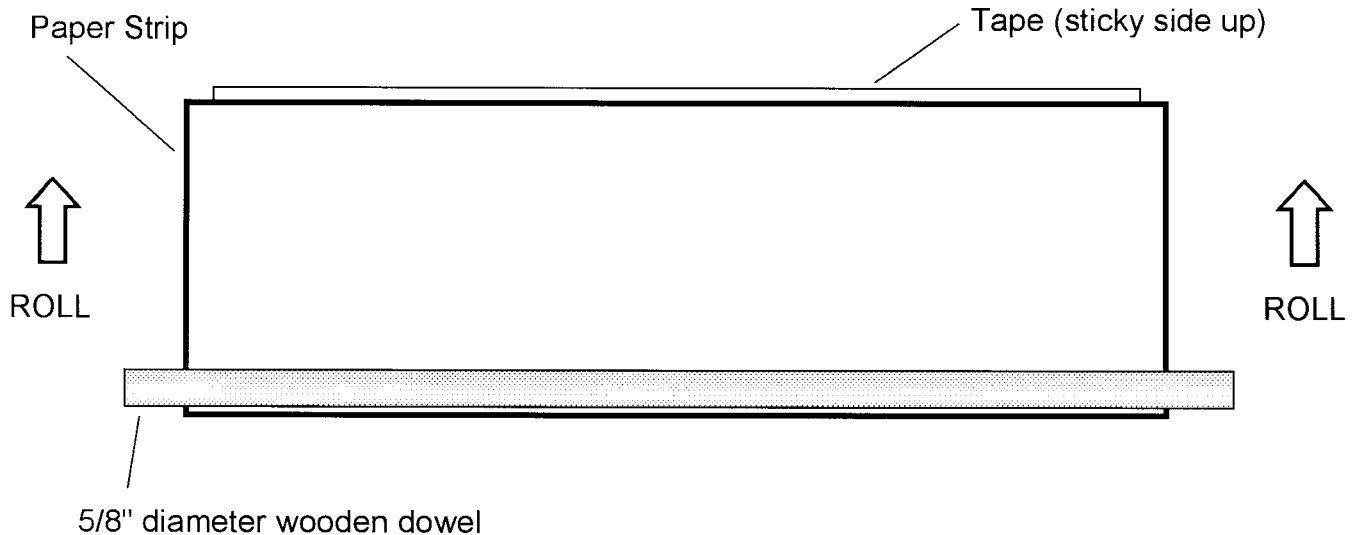

Instructions for Paper Beads

Cut a full sheet of colored paper into four equal strips as shown below. Cut at locations shown by dotted lines. NOTE: One full sheet makes enough paper beads for 2 children.

Lay paper strip on flat surface. Place tape along long edge of paper strip. Turn paper strip over so sticky side of tape is up as shown below. Use 5/8" diameter wooden dowel to roll paper into a tube. Tape will hold paper tube together. Remove dowel.

Cut paper tube into six paper beads as shown below. Cut at locations shown by dotted lines.
