Baby Naomi

Baby Naomi lived in West Africa. One day she became very sick and died. Her mommy was crying. Baby Naomi's Daddy and Pastor Robert knelt down beside her.

Pastor Robert said, "Baby Naomi will live to praise the Lord." He read a Bible verse which says, "I shall not die, but live, And declare the works of the Lord." It was Psalm 118:17.

Pastor Robert asked God to send baby Naomi's spirit back in the name of Jesus Christ. Suddenly, baby Naomi blinked a couple of times and opened her eyes!

Life of God

Preparation:

Prepare an open place in the room. As you give instructions, have the children do the corresponding actions.

What to Tell Them:

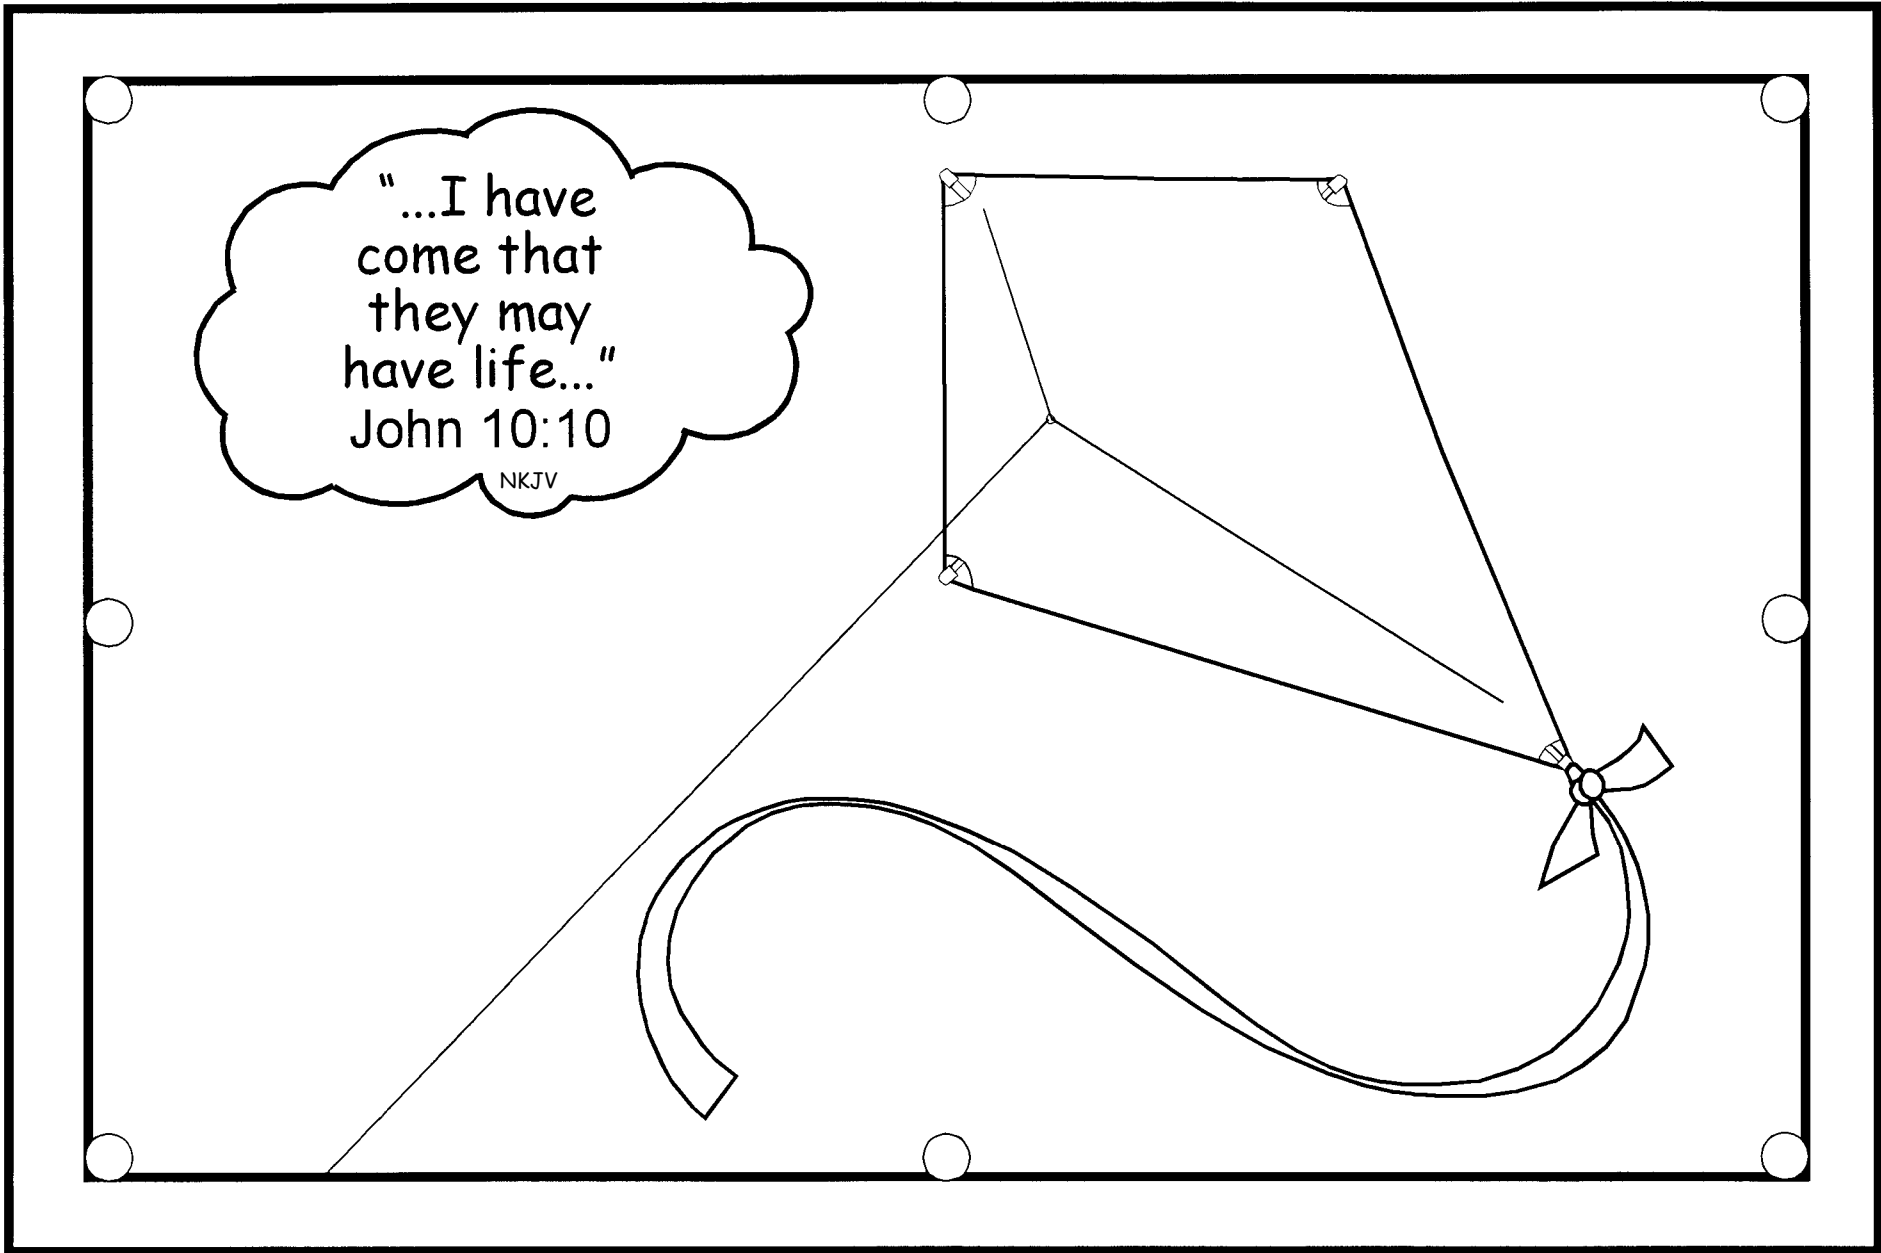

Stand up and turn around. Say, "The life of God is in me!"

Jump up and down. Say, "The life of God is in me!"

Wave your arms in the air. Say, "The life of God is in me!"

Now let's sit down. Say, "Jesus brought the life of God to me!"

Copy onto colored paper. Cut along outer border. Punch holes. Have children lace 1/8 inch wide ribbon through holes.

Little Girl

Preparation:

Bring to class a colorful sheet. Wrap the sheet around you as a robe.

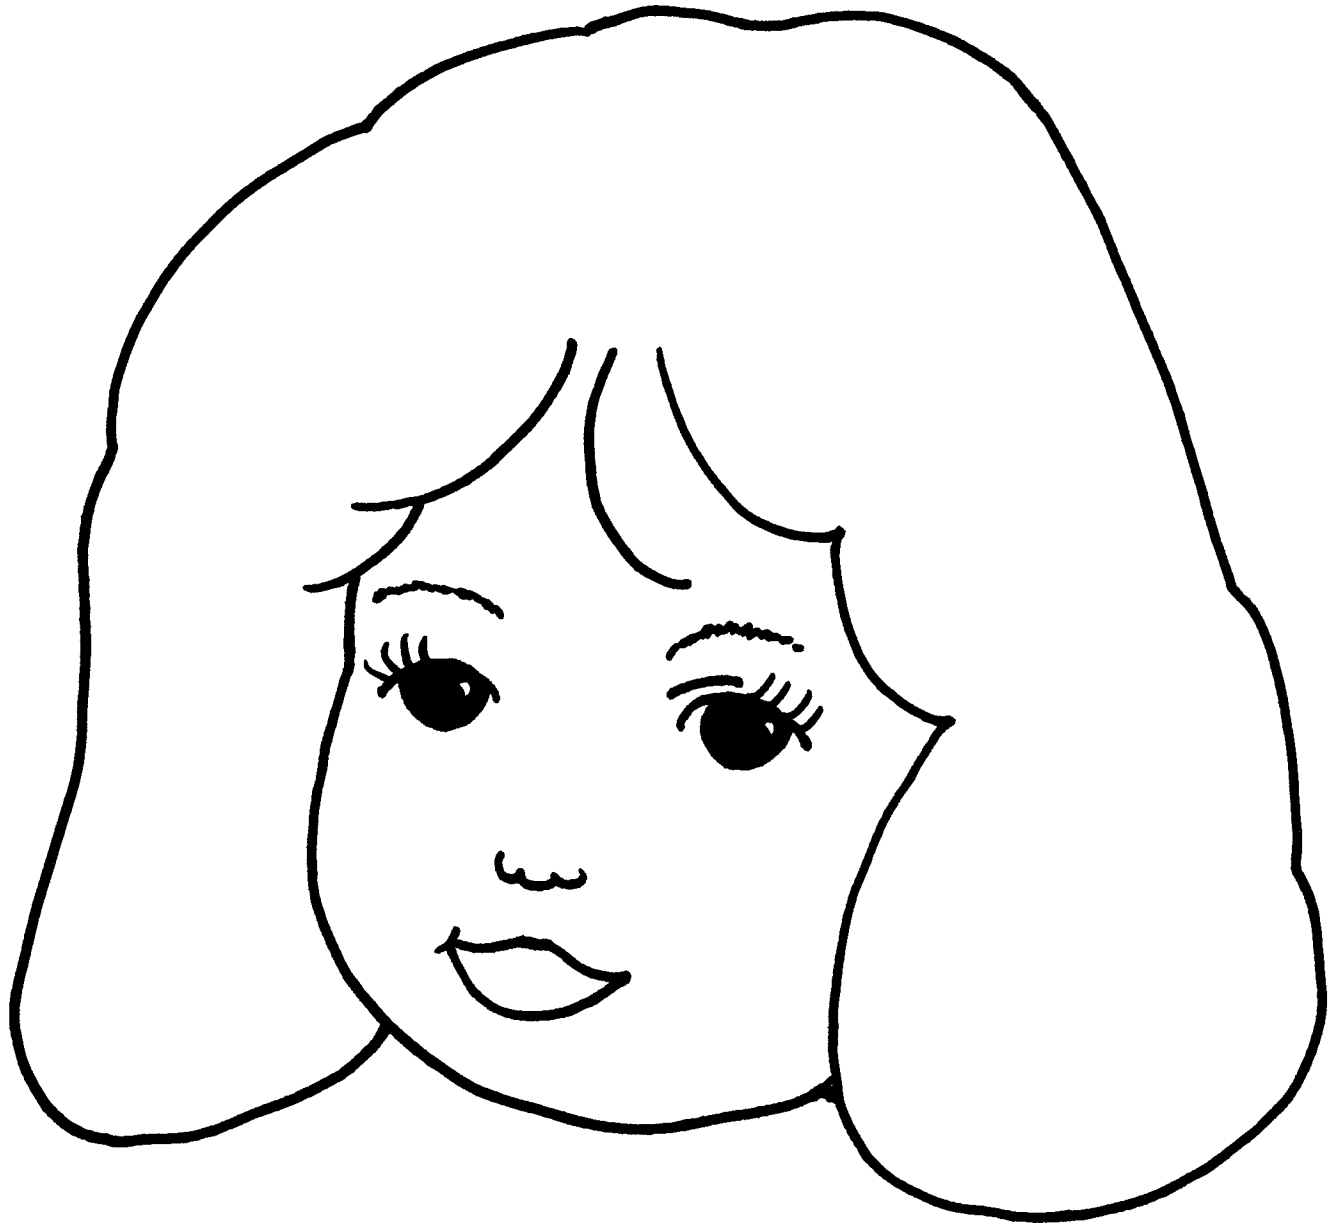

What to Tell Them:

I am going to pretend to be Jairus' little girl. Can you pretend with me? Speak the following with a little girl's voice.

Do you know what happened to me? I got sick and died. I went to heaven. My mom told me she cried and cried. Then Jesus came to my house and said, "Little girl, I say to you arise." I came back into my body, opened my eyes, and sat up. I saw my mom and dad. They were so surprised. They didn't know what to say. Then Jesus said to my mom, "Please give your little girl some food." I was glad He said that because I was very hungry. Jesus brought the life of God to me!

Boys and girls, Jesus brings the life of God to you, too.

Copy this page with "Face" and "Message Box" onto colored paper. Cut out "Face" and "Message Box." Have children glue "Face" onto the flap of lunch sack and glue "Message Box" onto front of sack below "Face."
